Liz Taylor Adds a Touch of British TLC to the Destination Wedding Congress 2015

Liz Taylor, managing director of the Manchester based Taylor Lynn Corporation (TLC), one of the UK and Europe's leading wedding and event planners, is taking centre stage at the second annual Destination Wedding Planners Congress 2015, which is being held in Mauritius on April 14-15, 2015.

Liz was specifically chosen by Dubai based organiser, QnA International, as a representative of the UK's thriving wedding industry because of her experience and knowledge of planning high-end weddings for a host of celebrities and private clients over a 30 year career. In a panel discussion, Liz joins leading representatives from India, Argentina, UAE and France to share their expertise in creating luxury weddings from the early planning stages, through design, catering and entertainment to the final photos of the day, with particular focus on how to create an element of uniqueness and WOW factor.

Destination Wedding Planners Congress is the only premier 'destination' for the elite wedding professionals from every corner of the globe. Liz Taylor will be joined by 100 of the world's top destination wedding planners who take part in debating live case studies, key note speeches and a series of interactive panel discussions revolving around the latest market insights and trends in the destination wedding industry. In addition, the event brings planners from across the globe together with 50 suppliers and wedding industry peers, in a host of networking events.

Commenting on the Congress Liz Taylor said: 'It's a real honour to be representing the UK at the world's most renowned destination wedding conference, and is testament to the fact that TLC is at the forefront of the country's thriving bridal industry.'

'In the UK we have seen a real upturn in couples planning to get married abroad, with destinations including the more traditional countries such as the Maldives and the Caribbean still popular, and emerging countries such as Italy and Greece also becoming firm favourites.'

'It will be interesting to see how destination wedding planners view the UK as a location for luxury weddings and also to debate the latest trends to emerge from other parts of the world. Some inspiring days are ahead!

Mauritius Tourism Promotion Authority (MTPA) is the host sponsor for the Congress.
